

LIS 9004 Research Methods & Statistics class invites you to attend our poster session on Thur. Apr.10. (2:00 - 4:00 pm) at North Campus Building Atrium (close to Tim Hortons area). The students will be presenting their proposals about the topics in Library and Information Science. This is a potluck event so expect food!~

1. The Benefits of Online Resources in Libraries
Allison Salin, Vernica Nageswaren and Kristin Blakely
2. Student perceptions of the usefulness of e-books in Western libraries: a case study
Sarah Dashow, Karli Fisher, Nikola Mitrovic, and Josh Klar
3. Where are the Graphic Novels? A Classic Detective Case of Cataloging & Shelving
Amandip Dhami, Ryan Regier, Lisa Chen, & Audra Hiller
4. I Got the Job: Comparing Skills for Employability Versus Functionality in LIS
Ashley Cooper, Tammi Kovacs, Tamara Noor, and Christine Pinkney
5. Workshops at the London Public Library central branch and the needs of the community
Amy Newitt, Caitlyn Sippel, Elyse Henderson, Stephanie Bradley Garton
6. Making the Most of Twitter: Promotional Tweets by Public Libraries in Southern Ontario
Emily Dracup, Derek Funston, Kristen Lemay and Vanessa Pritchard
7. Explorations Into Newcomer Programming: An assessment of newcomer satisfaction and needs in London Public Library's ELL programs
Natalie Emirzian, Alexander Korovessis, Juliene McLaughlin and Breann Ronquist
8. E-Reading Device Preferences Habits of Graduate Students at the Faculty of Information and Media Studies
Heather Rideout, Paul Smart, Andrea Sokal, Krystyna Spilchen
9. The Impact of Integration Resources for Immigrants Within Public Libraries
Anita Susac, Graham Hancock, Danielle McKay, and Elysha Ardelean
10. Information Seeking Behaviour of Students and Faculty at Private Sector Health Training Institutions in Tanzania: A Case Study of the Tandabui Institute of Health Sciences & Technology
Laura Haskill, Elizabeth Hawke, Christina Wilson, Zeineb Yousif
11. Note-taking strategies, comprehension and MLIS students
Scott Cowan, Colleen Durkee, Parick Fazari, and Christina Lunn