

LIS9733: Multilingual Information Access

1. Spanish in Mexico: Linguistic and Cultural Context and Information Access by Samantha Robson
2. The perception of language and "high culture" as a socioeconomic reflection of self in Italy & Italian language accessibility within libraries by Amanda Caputo
3. Hindi, English, "Hinglish": the Cultural Context of Information Exchanges in India's Official and Not-so-official Languages by Jennifer Browning
4. Arabic and Expats: Languages, culture, and access in the United Arab Emirates by Andrea Quaiattini
5. Hong Kong and its languages: Cantonese-English information access by Nataliia Larchenko
6. The Maltese language and information access: Standardization amidst a language rich in dialects by Audra Hiller
7. French in multilingual Switzerland: examining government information access in a multilingual official language environment by Anna Mahood
8. National multilingualism and regional monolingualism: The case of the Flemings and the Walloons of Belgium by David Purdy
9. The evolution of the Croatian language: historical influences on information access in Croatia by Tara Kutlesa
10. The Old and the New: Examining the Development and Use of Persian in Iran by Katherine Robertson
11. Dutch in the Netherlands: A Look at Socio-Cultural and Linguistic Challenges with Information Access by Amandip Dhami
12. Greek in Greece: the cultural context and information access" by Danielle McKay
13. (Tentatively) Information Access to Brazilian Portuguese by Carl Sack